

Solent 250 listing 2018

The top 250 private companies in the Solent region are listed on these pages. Our Solent 250, an annual list sponsored by HSBC, business adviser RSM and law firm Irwin Mitchell, focuses on companies headquartered in the area.

At the top is Arqiva, the British telecoms company which is at the heart of digital and broadcast infrastructure across the country. The company's sales are expected to increase again in 2017/18 – as the first quarter of the 2017 financial year was a record one.

Chief executive Simon Beresford-Wylie, commenting on the recent results, said: "This is another set of record results and highlights the strength of the business and its ability to produce cash. Arqiva is working with the Government, the regulator and our commercial partners to ensure that the UK has the right infrastructure for a successful digital communications future."

Poole-based Lush Cosmetics, which has nearly 1,000 stores in 49 countries, is another Solent success story. Group turnover for the year rose 21% to £394.9 million while pre-tax profits rose 76%. The company has stated that future expansion might take place outside the UK because of the Brexit effect.

Rules of engagement

- Companies are private, independent businesses.
- Listed companies (either LSE or foreign stockmarkets) are excluded.
- Companies must be trading in the Solent region, with their main headquarters located in the region.
- Companies that have their registered office in the region, but don't trade from that address, are excluded.
- Foreign-owned companies are excluded.
- Universities and other educational centres are excluded.
- Businesses in last year's 250 were asked to submit their latest results; some of these are included as they are more current than our other sources.
- Otherwise, Companies House records are used, provided by FAME.
- The Solent region is defined as most of Hampshire (south of Basingstoke) and parts of Dorset, Wiltshire and West Sussex.
